In addition to Indiana Packers Corp, Tyson Fresh meats was another Packing Plant where I worked. From where on a Weekly basis was shorted on my check. One of my Supervisors would tell me you do not get paid for the extra half hour that worked. When I worked on some overtime another shift they would tell me that the times the Supervisor on that shift would not write down your badge and hours you would not get paid. This went on. The entire two years that I worked there I was cheated especially with the times when I was still on the clock the time I would clean my equipment starting from 10/05 to 5/08 Could you please help me

receive compensation for all the monies that is long over due please

Thank you
Robert S. Clark
